Is the Tyler county Independent would endeavor to arouse some live interest in that county in the project of a river rail road, instead of seeking to arouse a wholly unfounded prejudice against those who do feel such an interest in it, and who will de full share towards building it, it would be doing vastly more than it is now doing to advance the best interests of the town and county where it is published.

The suffering that unhappy Island are entitled to the sympathy of the civilized world. They are the victims of a land system that dooms them to hopeless slavery. The country is robbed to provide an enormous revenue for non-resi dent owners, and a merciless lot of middlemen. The condition of Ireland is the standing reproach of England, and without reference to the question whether the "Obstructionists" in Parliament were or were not justified in their course, the grievances of the people whom they represent are entitled to an expression of sympathy from the whole American peo-

Childrens' Romes.

Governor Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, in a message to the Legislature of that State, thus alludes to the necessity of keeping homeless children out of the poor houses of the Commonwealth:

From the State Board of Public Chari-ties, from the official declarations made in the State Conventions of Poor Directors, and from the testimony of interested citizens on all sides, comes a swelling protes zens on all sades, comes a swelling protest against the longer continuance of the evil and disgrace attending the presence of children in our alms houses. In the past five years over three thousand children, under sixteen years old, have been temporary or permanent residents of these institutions. A disclosure of some of the rary or permanent residents of these in-stitutions. A disclosure of some of the facts, gathered from the sources above in-dicated, would shock the community, nor would a sense of propriety permit more than a reference to them herein.

These children, in a word, are enervat-ed by idleness, corrupted in body and soul, without the possibility of sequing or ra-

As matters and things at the Penitentiary are to be looked into by a visiting committee from the Legislature, I desire to append a suggestion or two in addition committee from the Legislature, I desire to append a suggestion or two in addition to those previously furnished.

There are in the town of Moundaville eleven stores, and I find in the recort of the Peotientiary officials the following statements. Only one merchant's name is mentioned as being worthy of the patronage of the institution. And yet the ten other stores are all nearer to the Pentientiary than the store of said merchant. How does this happen? Is it on the principle that "when you have a black cat save him by the tail?"

I also see a certain monthly statement of moneys paid for drugs. You can buy many things at a drug store; such, for instance, as "spirits/rumenti," blue mass and the like. Would it be out of order for the public to see a bill of particulars in regard to such purchases. Let us have an itemized account for the six month ending November 30, 1880, and see why it is that it takes $188 12 to buy medicines for 85 sick convicts for that time, and $4167 per month for medical attendance.

Another thing for inquiry is the amount paid for traveling expenses to attend meetings of the Board. Permit me to inquire whether it would be possible to find good material for directors more convenient to the penitentiary, or is it desirable for mileage. There is the bill of Mr. T. G. Smith, of Parkersburg, for instance, of $185 80 for attendance on five meetings of the Board. That sin't much, of course, but it its one of the mickles that make up the muckle. Next year, when the member from Mercer cornes in look out.

It might also be well for the committee It might also be well for the committee to secretain what inducements are held ont for the deposit of State or penitentiary funds at the little bank of Director Smith of Grafton.

by the late rains and mild weather. Much of it that was brown and dead on top of the ground is now coming out green and the ground is now coming out green and thrifty, showing that the roots were not injured. Parties arriving from the South-west this morning report that there was a steady, soaking rain on Sunday and Mon-day, all of which was retained in the soil. The rain was followed by a downfall of four inches, which now completely covers all the country between Emporia and four inches, which now completely covers all the country between Emporia and Dodge City, a distance of about 300 miles, the rain and anow were also general in the northwestern part of the State, extending as far west as Philipa county. About nine inches of snow fell there, and is melting on the wheat fields, thus insuring the resuscitation of the crop. Altogether, the condition so far could not be more favorable. The snow will afford protection from any further freezing, although it is believed the severe weather is over. The general prospects are now as ver. The general prospects are now as then Kansas harvested the two best crop f wheat ever raised in the State.

Rescued from Death,

The following statement of William J Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass, is so remarkable that we beg to ask for the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fail of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to loose my appetite and fleeb. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time treport went around that I was dead. I gave an hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hail's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at any friends, thinking that my case was incurble, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when my my surprise and gratification I commenced to teel better. My hops, once dead, began to wive, and today I feel in better spirits than have for the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one inflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wim. Half's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that Consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles, and can positively say that it has fone more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough the salmost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work," Sold by druggists.
